Holy Moments Are Catching on at MAA

Have you noticed Holy Moments are catching on at home, too?

This week's prompt: Write a letter to someone who believes in you.

Tips to Create This Holy Moment:

- Mail a note to someone who believed in you the most.
- Thank someone for some amazing advice they gave you in the past.
- Write an email to a teacher who helped you when you were struggling with school.

Last Chance for Walk of Friends Brick Order - Due 3/26

Have you noticed the Walk of Friends, our sidewalk adorned with personalized bricks? Anyone can join the Walk of Friends by purchasing a brick. They can be used to commemorate the graduation of a class, celebrate an individual graduate, honor the memory of a loved one, or simply to etch your name or your family's name into MAA's legacy. To order a brick, please complete the attached order form and send it to the school office with a check for $150 per brick payable to MAA. Orders must be received by 3/26. Any questions can be directed to Karen Novak at advancement@mountaviat.org.

Bedtime Literacy Session on 4/22, 6 pm, MAA Library

Parents and students in PK-2nd Grade, join us for a bedtime literacy session with guest host Mrs. Dawn Preske! Learn more tips about engaging your children with reading at bedtime and students can even come in their pajamas for this event! See the attached flyer and RSVP to Mrs. Nichols at admissions@mountaviat.org.
